The Daily Oregonian.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the honor your valor must save.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 1, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee.

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County,
H. N. GEORGE, of Linn County,
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

UNION MEN RALLY!!

There will be a meeting of the Lincoln and Johnson Club at their room at the Pioneer Hotel this evening at seven o'clock. All Union men are requested to turn out. Speaking from J. N. Dolph, Esq., of this city, and W. C. Johnson, Esq., of Oregon City. We shall announce other speakers from time to time during the week. Let there be no peace for the copperheads until after the election.

A Spy in the Camp.

The Dalles Mountaineer, at a time when there was strong rivalry from the State Journal, professed attachment for the Union cause, supported the Administration in an efficient manner, and reaped the benefits by receiving an appointment of cadet at West Point for the editor's son, and for himself, as printer of the laws of the United States. Since that time, and for the last three months, the paper has been, to all practical intents, hostile to the Administration, and by an insidious policy, while placing the names of Lincoln and Johnson at the head of its columns, has refused to publish the names of our electors, and, while according to the Union party a half hearted and ambiguous support, has lost no opportunity to quote in as favorable a manner as possible the sayings and doings of the Democratic party and press, and to compliment its leaders for able and efficient advocacy of [illegible]. The course the Mountaineer has taken attracts our notice because it is indicative of treachery, and of a base treachery at that.

Whatever course it may choose to [illegible] matter of ours, save as it affects for good or ill the principles we have at heart. The Mountaineer is welcome to oppose those principles to its heart's content. We merely decline, and emphatically decline, that our cause shall be betrayed with any political Iscariot's kiss. A manly opponent we respect; and if our cotemporary will throw off his cloak, and join the open and avowed opposition to the Union cause, he can stand much better in the opinions of the Union party than to follow out his present programme. To conclude, the conduct of the Mountaineer towards prominent men of the Union party who are in the field working for the cause, is unworthy of aught but a bitter foe, not injuring them so much as it reflects discredit on their assailant.

It may be some satisfaction to all concerned to know that this article is written at the suggestion of many citizens of the Dalles, and of Union men of prominence elsewhere.

The Union State Central Committee cannot be gathered together for action before the election next week, or it is certain they would officially discountenance the course of the Mountaineer. This piece has the sanction of, and is written at the request of a portion of that committee.

Peace.—There was a time—not quite a century since—when a master mind declared, "Gentlemen may cry peace, peace, but there is no peace," in answer to the clamor of the ancient Copperheads.

To-day the cry of "peace" is constantly heard from the enemies of the Government, and "motley" is the word that most properly will characterize those who join the cry. Vallandigham, Voorheis and Wood want to see peace unconditionally; desire that Federal armies shall be withdrawn from Confederate soil, and that the oppressed chivalry shall go free, with their attempt at disunion consummated and perfected. Others again, are for continuing a peace if the South insists on rebellion, and their idea of peace is a nigger appendage to be constitutionally held and whipped.

Then the most numerous class of the "[illegible] Democracy" want no peace that will not give each a piece of the spoils. These are far more ardent than patriotic. McClellan is the grand centre around which these democratic lights harmoniously revolve. He represents the peace men; he represents the war men; he represents the spoils men; and how he does it is a conjurer's trick well worth the knowing.

It is as true to-day, as history proves its truth a century since, that "there is no peace" practicable, the war is not only "already begun," but almost ended. We will soon have "peace" honorably won, and that will be lasting; but McClellan will not win it. Grant, Sherman and Sheridan will give us "peace," by destroying not only rebellion, but by annihilating with it the last vestige of modern Democracy, that will prove as fleeting as rebellion or as the glory of George B. McClellan.

The following named gentlemen have been appointed for the recruiting service by Governor Gibbs, and have been mustered in as second lieutenants: A. J. Borland, Grant county; E. Palmer, Yamhill county; Chas. LaFollet, Polk county; [illegible] Hale, Clatsop county; W. J. Shipley, Benton county; W. S. Powell, Multnomah county; C. P. Crandall, Marion county; F. O. McCown, Clackamas county; T. Humphrey, Jackson county. The attention of other papers is called to the quotas of different counties as determined by calculation, which will be found in connection with the proclamation of Governor Gibbs, though published for first time to-day.

Postal Affairs.—The following is a list of the appointment of Postmasters in the State of Oregon: W. Scott, Phoenix, Jackson county, Oregon; George B. Hinsdale, Scottsburg, Douglas county, Oregon; Isaac N. [illegible], Nez Perces [illegible], Idaho Territory; [illegible], Walla Walla county, Washington Territory; [illegible] Walker, Eola, Polk county, Oregon; [illegible] discontinued, September [illegible], Wilbur, Douglas county, Oregon; Grove City, Tilamook county, [illegible] Duwamish, King county, Washington Territory; October 12, [illegible], Marion county, Oregon.

Calling Names.—Mr. Hayden, the President [illegible] the [illegible] significant and [illegible] Union men [illegible] the [illegible] Democracy. It troubled him considerably that the party, whose sweet-scented innocence has never [illegible] appellations of malignant epithets [illegible] their designation was able to invent, whose decency has been only governed by their capacity [illegible] at last lived to be stigmatized.

It tries to [illegible] in some degree [illegible] Heaven to save the [illegible] proverb, [illegible] if you have it not [illegible] is [illegible] when it can play the [illegible] game [illegible] enough to impose upon somebody.

It affiliates with slavery, it loves slavery, and worships the nigger when he has his shackles on; looks the other way when the master buys a wench for purposes of lust, and sells his yellow progeny to make fine well matters set easy in the parlor and the kitchen [illegible] when the overseer [illegible] the lash over the back of the [illegible] that [illegible] be anything but the [illegible] thing he was born.

There are many decent slaveholders, who make it the study of their lives to ameliorate the condition of their born dependents, but they are not the exponents of the institution, as the "Constitutional Democracy" (Heaven save the mark!) understand and appreciate it.

Copperhead, as a term of designation, is appropriate. But while the rattlesnake stands for Southern treason, that is about the only synonym that suits the Northern twin, and to the South the only word handed down from the time of Judas Iscariot until now, significant enough to express the fact that when Southern treason dies Copperheadism will be defunct, and all that will remain of it will be a stigma and a reproach.

History will chronicle the brave deeds of Southern rebels whose lives and fortunes are staked upon an issue, with respect; but their Northern apologists will be damned with the lasting curse of every freeman and every freeman's child.

We take the following three items from the [illegible].

We learn that a courier has arrived at Fort Lapwai, from the Jocko Reservation, bringing the intelligence that a train, numbering about eighty wagons, had been captured by the Indians between Fort Union and Fort Benton, and all in the charge of it massacred. Major Owen, one of the owners of the train, and formerly Agent of the Government among the Flatheads, was among the number. We will endeavor to give particulars in our next.

On Sunday night, about twelve o'clock, Jim Walters and Charley Mitchell got into a "pets" and difficulty, at the hurdy-gurdy house, when each made a target of the other. Eight or ten shots were fired. The only damage was a slight wound in Mitchell's head, the hurdy-gurdies badly scared, and a general demolition of furniture, glass doors, etc. The Deputy Sheriff attempted to arrest Walters on Monday. Repairing to the Luna House, and finding that Walters was eating his dinner, he awaited him in the bar-room. But Walters took the hint, went out the back door, and vamosed. The best thing for the country that could have happened.

The Nez Perces, in the vicinity of Lewiston, have made better advancement in the art of farming than those at a distance have any idea of. Of course all is accomplished through squaw labor. They have been recompensed this year with fine crops. They are constantly coming into town with animals packed with potatoes, cabbages, onions, and all varieties of vegetables incident to the latitude. Last year they produced a surplus of wheat over their own consumption, amounting to twenty thousand pounds; and this year the quantity will probably double that. In quality, some of their products will compare favorably with the more thorough and scientific cultivation of their white superiors. They should receive every encouragement in their efforts in this direction.

General Orders, No. 22.

General Alvord has sent us the following:

HEAD-QUARTERS DISTRICT OF OREGON,
Fort Vancouver, W. T., Oct. 25th, 1864.

The arduous services of the troops during the past season deserve the notice and commendation of the Commanding General. In the field since early spring, they have won his thanks, officers and men, for their persevering exertions in long and dreary marches, often through desert wastes, with a view to the protection of travelers, miners and emigrants. The troops under Col. Maury, Captains Curry, Caldwell, Drake and Barry, and Lieutenants Hobart, Waymire and West, have all done good service—sometimes in conflict with the Snake Indians. South-eastern Oregon is no longer an unknown region. From the Columbia river to the Nevada and California line, the whole country has been thoroughly traversed. From each temporary depot scouting parties were sent to every point of the compass. Some of the troops have traveled this season, more than two thousand miles.

During the summer of 1862 and 1863, these troops made honorable and important campaigns into the Indian country, and upon the emigrant road. If on this occasion they had no Indian wars, they had the satisfaction by their presence of preventing them.

It is fitting that the closing services of the greater portion of the 1st Oregon Cavalry, have been devoted to the exploration and development of a part of Oregon heretofore marked on our maps as "unexplored," but which can no longer receive that designation.

The regiment was raised three years ago, in the fervor of the Union sentiment of the State, and they rushed to the standard to show their readiness to put down any possible scheme of secession on this coast. They have, happily, thus far had no such duty to perform; a duty which would have been so inspiring to the volunteers. They have had little stimulus amid their privations. But they can at least reflect that they have materially aided in developing the hidden treasures of the land.

The country deplores the death of 2d Lieutenant Stephen Watson, 1st Oregon Cavalry, killed in the fight of the 18th May, and of the other gallant men who fell with him.

If a pledge had been given them, they would have lost their lives in support of the glorious cause for which our troops are contending at the east. We, who mourn their demise, must be consoled with the reflection that they died in the defense of a suffering frontier, which will cherish the memory of their generous and patriotic services.

By order of Brig.-Gen. B. Alvord.
J. W. HOPKINS,
1st Lieut., 1st Oregon Cavalry,
Act'g Ass't Adj't General.

"Dishonesty [illegible] Good Deal."—A gentleman of statistical turn of mind estimates that Ben Hayden, in his late speech, used the word "Democracy" at least one hundred times. Now this name "Democracy" has been "lost, mislaid or stolen," for a long time, and the Copperheads, conscious of its valuable properties, and finding it laying around loose, very prudently and sagaciously appropriated it, as stealing is genteelly termed in modern parlance. Now we protest that while such appropriation is unconstitutional, it is in bad taste to be bandying the word so eternally as Ben does it; but Ben has "a thousand acres of land in Polk county"—or at least he says he has—and we suppose under the [illegible] the word or oath of a "Cop" will have to pass for all it is worth—and he ought, whenever the spirit moves him to speak, to say "Democracy" at least once in a [illegible]. Such being the case, a large circle of friends will have to determine how many "Democracy" is worth at [illegible].

[illegible] Horsetown, Cal.—We learn by a telegraph that all of Horsetown, Shasta county, California, was burned to the ground [illegible] the loss is quite severe. The telegraph office was [illegible] but the instrument was saved. The wire was being put up again, and is probably at work [illegible]. The whole town was destroyed.

[illegible] with the expedition that has been [illegible] has reached Fort Klamath.

By Overland Telegraph.

[illegible]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 27.

St. Louis, Oct. 27.—A dispatch from Fort Smith says a train was attacked by bushwhackers, south of Fort Scott, and 10 men killed. Part of the train was [illegible].

Our Fun [illegible] under Capt. Taylor [illegible] Major [illegible] twelve o'clock, Saturday night, [illegible] Blackbur, [illegible] Hawkins, McArgle, [illegible] and Shadrack who were [illegible] at the [illegible].

The Federal loss in the battle of the 23d was [illegible]. The rebels were chased all Sunday night, and [illegible] fighting with their rear was kept up [illegible] day. [illegible] they made a stand, but were handsomely whipped again.

Most of the Kansas militia have gone home, martial law has been abolished, and business has been resumed.

Five hundred rebels under Lieutenant McDaniels crossed the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad near Bucktown, on Monday, going north. A strong force was sent after them.

Our forces have been driving Price rapidly since Sunday. [illegible] he was 25 or 30 miles south of Fort Scott, and his army was routed and dispersed. On Tuesday, we had a fight with him, between Mound City and Fort Scott, in which he was badly whipped, losing 1,000 prisoners, 12 pieces of artillery and several prisoners, among whom were Major-General Marmaduke, General Cabell, several colonels and other officers. He was again attacked yesterday morning, a short distance from Fort Scott, and driven in a southerly direction. He burned 200 wagons yesterday to prevent them from falling into our hands. Nothing is stated about the loss on either side, but there is no doubt about Price's army being completely demoralized and scattered. The telegraph is working to Fort Scott. Nothing has been received about today's operations, except that our forces are still in pursuit of Price. Steele has been reinforced at Fort Smith, with a probable view of contesting Price's entrance into Arkansas.

The Tribune's correspondent with Butler, on the 24th, says the action of the rebel governors plainly indicate their desire that their slaves should aid them in their desperate straits. Their army confronting us before Richmond and Petersburg now, is known to be reduced to not exceeding 35,000 men, all told. Jeff. Davis, Lee, Longstreet and other distinguished rebels yesterday rode along the lines in our front and then went back to Richmond. A rebel ram crept down the river last night under the cover of darkness to their old position, but hurried away again at dawn this morning.

New York, Oct. 27.—Sheridan's magnificent victory of the 19th was such a blow to the rebels, that the Richmond papers are making desperate efforts to disbelieve it. The Enquirer, alluding to the turning point in the battle says [illegible] of the most brilliant victories of the war was won by our troops, but in an evil hour, when our men were plundering property they had captured, a small force of Yankee cavalry opened on our left flank, and the plunderers took flight. Thus our whole army thrown into a panic fled in a disgraceful condition. Still it argues this defeat only a temporary disaster. No solid results were obtained by it for Sheridan, disgraceful though it was for us.

The rebel cavalry especially are abused in strong terms for their conduct on the occasion. 10,000 is given as the whole number of Early's army in battle and 40,000 as Sheridan's.

Additional charges are the substituting McClellan for Lincoln votes in the original envelopes submitted by the soldiers and the forging names thereto. One box over three feet long, containing many thousand of the fraudulent votes have been seized, and others are known to have been sent to New York. Developments promise to be of the most startling character. Moses E. Ferry, of New York, State Agent at Baltimore, was arrested on the charge of forging soldiers' votes. He made a full confession admitting the forging of a large number, and gives the names of parties who assisted him. Several prominent persons, are said to be implicated. Names not given.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The New York State Agent in this city was arrested to-day. His office was closed.

New York, Oct. 28.—The Richmond papers of the 24th contain the proceedings of a convention held at Augusta, Georgia, of the Governors of the rebel States. After a free interchange of opinions, it was resolved that there is no cause to be discouraged, but an imperative increase of the army is immediately required; the Legislature to repeal all law prohibiting the sending of troops outside of the State limits; urges the Confederate authorities to conscript every man engaged in various departments whose places can be supplied by disabled officers, soldiers or negroes; recommends a legislative enactment for the arrest of deserters; to make it imperative that negroes be removed from the frontiers, exposed to the Union armies; that the course of the United States Government appropriating slaves for purposes of war demands a change of policy on their part and recommend the Confederate authorities under proper regulation to appropriate such part of the negroes as the public service may be required; the Confederate Congress to remove all restrictions on commerce between individual States. The Governors closed with the usual harangue about maintaining the rights of Sovereign States, achieving their independence, etc.

New York, Oct. 27.—A Washington dispatch says that it appears to be the aim of the rebels to take up their front in northern or central Alabama covering Montgomery, Mobile, etc. This will practically open up Sherman's line of conquest to the Gulf.

The citizens of Vermont, along the frontier, are organizing cavalry and infantry companies for protection against raiders. Government has secured from the War Department a sufficient quantity of cavalry supplies, which will be distributed along the border.

It is reported that the Canadian conference has selected Ottawa for the capital of the United Provinces, Toronto for capital of Upper Canada, and Quebec, capital of Lower Canada.

The election in West Virginia has resulted in the entire Union ticket being elected. The candidate for Governor, A. J. Boreman, had no opposition and received a heavy vote. Returns indicate that Hubbard, Union Congressman, is elected by upwards of 1200 majority. The Legislature is largely Union.

Governor Bradford has just proclaimed the new Free State Constitution of Maryland by a vote of 30,174 against 29,799.

The Governor of Maine has appointed Nathan A. Farwell to fill the unexpired term of Fessenden in the Senate.

St. Louis, Oct. 29.—Latest accounts put Price near Carthage, Jasper county, still skedaddling with our cavalry in hot pursuit. Pleasanton was slightly injured by a fall from his horse.

The steamer Belle, of St. Louis, was attacked by guerillas while lying at Randolph, Tennessee, on the night of the 27th. Paymaster Butler, and Smith were killed and several of the crew wounded.

Foreign News.

Halifax, Oct. 27.—The Canada, from Liverpool the 15th and Queenstown the 16th, has arrived.

A Spanish steamer name unknown, from Antwerp, came to anchor off Shoreham, Sussex county, on the 11th, in charge of officers of the United States frigate Niagara, which vessel had seized her on suspicion of having a cargo to run the blockade. The Niagara was in company with the steamer. The steamer [illegible] was also off New Haven proceeding down the channel.

The owner of the blockade-runner Lamar publishes a letter denying the statement that Semmes had sailed in his new vessel as stated, and ridicules the idea that the little steamer [illegible], of less than 100 tons, is to be manned and armed from the steamer [illegible] and converted into a rebel cruiser.

It is reported from Africa that Jules Gerard, the lion hunter, was drowned while crossing a river.

Engagements occurred between the French troops and the Arabian insurgents in Algeria, on the 29th and 30th of September, resulting in 800 Arabs being killed and wounded, and the [illegible] of [illegible].

The Spanish steamer was stopped in the [illegible] by the steamer [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] when the [illegible] to her destination which is [illegible] to be Matamoras.

[illegible] OF SAILING IN SMALL CRAFTS.—A friend [illegible] has been visiting the cemetery at Astoria, has [illegible] the result of his notes as showing the [illegible] incident to sailing in that locality in small [illegible] It may possibly cause a shudder in some [illegible] of who have had narrow escapes in the [illegible] stream of the Columbia, neither above its [illegible] while cruising for pleasure. Of all those [illegible] this ancient burial place fully [illegible] have met their deaths from drowning. There [illegible] tablet from which we take the following [illegible]

IN MEMORY OF
D [illegible]
Aged 42 Years
Drowned Crossing this River
May 22d 1814

[illegible] engraved over fifty years since when [illegible] wild but little known, bears the marks of [illegible] its face, but is comparatively quite intel[illegible] The monument is of a grayish sand stone [illegible] around in the vicinity of Astoria. There [illegible] persons yet living on the banks of the Columbia [illegible] will remember the circumstances of Mr Mc[illegible] death. At that time Astoria was creating [illegible] sensation in the minds of a few men [illegible] a few years after the arrival of the Tonquin [illegible] the Sandwich Islands, which gave rise to the [illegible] of the famous place. The reader of [illegible] Astoria" will recollect the sketches of [illegible] escapes that have been made in the crossing [illegible] Columbia to and from China [illegible] of one of the Indians of the [illegible] his rescue of the McDougal party who [illegible] for their [illegible] The future visitors of [illegible] when they [illegible] shake off the cares and dust of city life, by [illegible] Portland for a while in summer, will do [illegible] put this in their hat, and use its meaning as [illegible] of their "shuffling off this mortal coil." [illegible] be same visit.

[illegible] ESTABLISHMENT.—One of the finest es[illegible] any where west of New York will be [illegible] in this city to day by Charles F. Wiegand, [illegible] new block, for the accommodation of [illegible] bathing rooms and barbershop. The attraction [illegible] new place of business consists in the mag[illegible] style in which it has been fitted up. The [illegible] room is handsomely decorated in the highest [illegible] of the fresco painting art, and has the rep[illegible] on the walls of the busts of Caesar and [illegible] which designs [illegible] well and handsomely [illegible] and taken all together presents a superior [illegible] of workmanship. This was done by Mr Will [illegible] an artist who has lately come among [illegible] great promise for the future decoration of [illegible] buildings. The chairs in the front room, of [illegible] there are three, are the most improved kind, [illegible] The large rosewood show case which [illegible] the west wall of the room is a fine specimen [illegible] work, wrought in this city by Mr C Stoll. [illegible] Wiegand, has expended some $[illegible]000 in fitting [illegible] establishment and now has the most excel[illegible] accommodations for his patrons that are to be [illegible] The baths are of any desired order from [illegible] hot cold or tepid, to the steam, also [illegible] sulphur and shower baths, and in recompense [illegible] the efforts he has made to please all, we most [illegible] wish him abundant success.

[illegible] EXTRA TAX.—The other day a gentleman of [illegible] appearance, from the mining districts, [illegible] from the seat of government, was prudent[illegible] up his understanding before venturing [illegible] encounter the muddy streets and keen wits [illegible] Portland. The job was let out to one of the [illegible] individuals who devote their talents to pul[illegible] the peregrinating [illegible] The boot black—induced by the sight of [illegible] back—commenced a homily on "taxation [illegible] representation." "What tax do you pay?" [illegible] friend. "Why, sir, I pay twelve dollars [illegible] year on my head." "That is nearly a small [illegible] on wool." You ought to be thankful not [illegible] put a stamp on every pair of boots you [illegible]" and our friend, looking with unsophisticated [illegible] simplicity on the full grown "clip" or "fleece" [illegible] before him, with every motion of the [illegible] The darkey was indignant, but battled his [illegible] but we have a [illegible] our country [illegible] visit the bottle may explode.

[illegible] WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—"Aurora Floyd" [illegible] performed last evening to a full house and se[illegible] audience. Miss Ince as Aurora, Mr Mc[illegible] and Mr Waldron as Mr Mellish. The plot [illegible] upon an early and indiscreet secret marriage, [illegible] by Aurora when a school girl. She mar[illegible] with his consciousness that a secret ex[illegible] and one of the finest features of the play con[illegible] of the implicit confidence that on his part [illegible] suspicion, and trust was full faith un[illegible] the sequel all comes out right, and his confi[illegible] fully rewarded. Mr Potter as the [illegible] Miss Jane's child [illegible] brought down the [illegible] and J. S. Townsend as Steeve Hargreaves, play[illegible] despicable part with admirable address. The [illegible] lengthy, and it is some time before the plot [illegible] developed, but when once approached it attracts [illegible] closing scene.

[illegible] RUMORS.—The recent homicide has given [illegible] many very extravagant reports, and "items" [illegible] "fresh" and "lively" if the reports could [illegible] on, but really there is little foundation in [illegible] The city is getting more densely packed [illegible] the saloons, and hurdy gurdy dance [illegible] throngof every night, yet the occurren[illegible] not of a very thrilling nature; nevertheless [illegible] recommend our city authorities to imme[illegible] contract an efficient police system, author[illegible] the new charter, that there may be some [illegible] of safety for the citizens during the win[illegible] at least. The Dalles is quite our supe[illegible] in this respect.

[illegible] OF THE CLUB.—This evening there will [illegible] speaking at the Union Club Rooms, and the room [illegible] at the Pioneer Hotel, by W. Chrey [illegible] Esq, J. N. Dolph, Esq, and others. It [illegible] seen that the words of Grant at Fort D[illegible] We propose to move immediately on your [illegible] has been adopted by the Union men of [illegible] and they propose to put it through. The [illegible] of the people is increasing, and will be [illegible] abundant in their country, until they elect [illegible] and Andy on Tuesday next.

[illegible] VIOLATION OF THE CONSTITUTION.—Late [illegible] night an individual who had partaken [illegible] freely of copper head whiskey, from which he [illegible] to violate Ordinance No. 10 was, by [illegible] carried to the lockup by some of the city [illegible] He stoutly protested against the [illegible] of the act, interlarding his protest [illegible] with about as choice language as did Ben [illegible] in his harangue before the McClellan club, [illegible] Saturday night.

[illegible] CASE STATED.—We are informed by Justice [illegible] before whom the examination was held of [illegible] made brief mention yesterday, that the [illegible] of a nominal fine imposed by a Penitentiary [illegible] was on account of the insufficiency, or want [illegible] evidence. The complainant was merely [illegible] assault [illegible] at that. The parties plead guilty [illegible] complaint, and thus the case terminated.

[illegible] STEAMSHIP SIERRA NEVADA.—This vessel [illegible] expected to-night from San Francisco [illegible] steamer [illegible] Stark, will leave her [illegible] this city for the mouth of the river, at [illegible] to-day to bring up her passengers and [illegible]

[illegible] J. H. WILLIAMS, [illegible] Col[illegible] C. Brooks of the bark [illegible] morning, says he is expecting to leave [illegible] Passengers and freight for the bark will [illegible] this city on that morning.

[illegible] GOODS [illegible]—We refer the at[illegible] of our readers this morning to the adver[illegible] of Mr Wilson, under the above heading. [illegible] a varied stock from which to select and [illegible] will do well to call upon him, 12[illegible] Front [illegible]

I could add much more, but time and space [illegible] not permit. I cannot close, however, without [illegible] you the cheering news that there is every in[illegible] that on the [illegible] Tuesday in next November [illegible] we will roll up a larger majority for [illegible] Old Abe than even his warmest friends have antici[illegible] pated.

The nomination of Geo. B. McClellan was re[illegible] ceived here with almost [illegible] by the Democracy. I do not hesitate [illegible] nounce him publicly, and many swear that they would prefer [illegible] Old Abe to Little Mac, for they know where the first stands [illegible] ble to ascertain the exact [illegible] Napoleon [illegible] ment. [illegible] up our constitutional [illegible] not call them speeches [illegible] old Democratic war horse of Oregon [illegible] stance of which [illegible] State [illegible] Federal Government [illegible] from constitutional [illegible] occupant of the [illegible] chair [illegible] dose, to sensible men [illegible] their ignorant and deluded followers.

But I find I am occupying [illegible] In con[illegible] clusion I would say [illegible] work with a will until the next election and the people of Oregon, by triumphant [illegible] taken, will show to the world, then firm and unwa[illegible] vering devotion to their country, and their undying hatred of everything that is treasonable, under whatever guise it may appear.

LE. DOYEN'S
Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

Cleanse the Blood.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

BLOOD AND LIVER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, &c.

AS A TONIC,

Its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and vigor [illegible] relaxed and feeble [illegible].

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? [illegible] order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? [illegible] and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered [illegible] purify the blood [illegible].

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

It has no equal [illegible] gravel [illegible] Sole Agents of Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla for the Pacific Coast.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel-plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"
THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATTENDED this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS;

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once relieved, revivified and built up. Will assay this celebrated medicine [illegible].
